A gorgeous celebration of family — and not wanting to grow up too quickly — from rising star author-illustrator, Steve Small. When Wellington is given a new jacket exactly like Dad's for his birthday, at first he's delighted. But his delight turns to disappointment when he tries it on and it's far too big. And what if, Wellington thinks, — even worse! — it's not that the jacket is too big, but that he's too small? Well, Wellington's dad has a plan, and on an exciting day out that takes in a ride on the bus, a super-size strawberry sundae, a toot on a tuba and a visit to his grandad, Wellington learns that he's growing up exactly as fast as he should be — and just like his dad.

The first biography of Yo La Tengo, the massively influential band who all but defined indie music. Yo La Tengo has lit up the indie scene for three decades, part of an underground revolution that defied corporate music conglomerates, eschewed pop radio, and found a third way. Going behind the scenes of one of the most remarkable eras in American music history, Big Day Coming traces the patient rise of husband-and-wife team Ira Kaplan and Georgia Hubley, who over three decades helped forge a spandex-andhairspray-free path to the global stage, selling millions of records along the way and influencing countless bands. Using the continuously vital Yo La Tengo as a springboard, Big Day Coming uncovers the history of the legendary clubs, bands, zines, labels, record stores, college radio stations, fans, and pivotal figures that built the infrastructure of the now-prevalent indie rock world. Journalist and freeform radio DJ Jesse Jarnow draws on all-access interviews and archives for mesmerizing trip through contemporary music history told through one of its most creative and singular acts.

Bo Bo and Cha Cha have settled comfortably into their new home at the Mandai Zoo, and are ready to explore Singapore. Having heard so much about what this country has to offer, they come up with a long list of places to visit. However, Perang the pangolin advises them that it would take too long to see everything, so they end up visiting the Istana, taking a bumboat ride on the Singapore river, flying kites at the Marina Barrage, eating at a hawker centre in Toa Payoh, and even playing on swings!
